

WHEN HUDSON ADVERTISES SELLING OUT IT MEANS BUSINESS

ONLY 29 DAYS MORE OF THE BIG CLOSING OUT SALE THAT THE TOWER CLOTHING CO.

Is selling out has been heralded far and near. When the first surprise occasioned by the announcement had passed, then the public began to investigate, and now our store is besieged with buyers, all anxious to secure the FAREWELL BARGAINS. Ask the patrons of the big sale if their purchases have been satisfactory. At noon, Nov. 8th, we started to convert the largest and best stock of Clothing in Western Michigan into cash, and that, too, in 53 days. There was only one way out. We had to make ruinous cuts in price on every article in the store. We did it. Notice the result. For this week we offer the most unparalleled BARGAINS in MEN'S FINE OVERCOATS and ULSTERS EVER YET SHOWN. Wednesday, Dec. 6th, we shall force off 1,000 PAIRS BOYS' KNEE PANTS at 19c, 38c, 42c, 75c and $1.00, AT A MANUFACTURERS' LOSS OF FIFTY PER CENT. Fit out the boys. Four pieces of Underwear at exactly what you pay for three pieces if bought elsewhere. 35 per cent. on other FURNISHINGS, HATS or CAPS is all we can promise to give our patrons who visit us this fourth to the last week of the existence of

THIS WEEK 25 PER CENT DISCOUNT

A great success has crowned this sale. The same as those of yore. Store gratitude as it should be. We'll continue one week more.

Our One-Quarter Off Sale is meeting with a measure of success that sends goods topsy turvy out of front, side and back doors, as though they were sent spinning head over heels by a vigorous heeler. This week our doors will stand ajar to every man, woman and child who will enter and lay hold upon our entire line with the iron grip of 25 per cent discount. Following a few of the many articles are set forth both at their
